TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Paris, 28th—The new French Cabinet comprises:—Loubet, Premier and Interior; Ribot, Foreign; Rouvier, Finance; Freycinet, War; Cavaignac, Marine; Bourgeois, Education; Viette, Public Works; Roche, Commerce and Colonies; Dovelle, Agriculture; Ricard, Justice. All, except Loubet, Viette, and Cavaignac, were members of the previous Cabinet.

Vienna, 28th—The same bad state of things apparent in other parts of Europe prevails here and is causing great anxiety. Over 1000 Bohemian labourers out of work have sent delegates to the Burgomaster of Prague demanding employment. Count Tuont received the delegates and promised to think of them, advising them to abstain from any manifestation.

Honolulu, 28th—The barque Tamerlane has been lost at Hilo, and eighteen lives were lost.

London, 28th—The Princess May of Teck has returned to her father's house. Many of the wedding presents sent to her have been returned. Her brother, Prince Adolphus of Teck, is to be married to Lord Burton's daughter.

Berlin, 28th—The momentary calm has been broken, and rioting began again at 9 o'clock last night, when the mob began stoning the police. The latter at first only used the flat of their swords, but were soon forced in self-defence to resort to the edge, and a great number of people were wounded, many of them seriously. The population is in a state of wild excitement.

Berlin 29th—The riots continue. The alarm is rapidly increasing, and the police, armed to the teeth, are to be seen everywhere. The recent details show that the disorder is more serious than was thought. Several places of business are said to have been burned down, and policemen thrown into the river. There was another great tumult yesterday, and at one moment an attack on the Imperial Palace was threatened. An enormous mob, uttering loud threats, suddenly appeared in front of the Palace. The police mounted their horses in haste, prepared to fight, and special messengers were sent to advise the Emperor at the Thier Garten, where he was taking a walk.

The Emperor, who appeared much startled by the news, returned to the Palace in a closed carriage, through the back streets. Before the Emperor reached the Palace, the police had charged the rioters and dispersed them. The situation is becoming more critical, although this afternoon there is a slight improvement, as the authorities have obtained a great advantage over the rioters by dislodging them from some of their positions. It was noted that at the last gatherings of the mob, they were led by Socialists, who declaimed violently against the Government, the police and the present order of things. Arrests continue to be made by the police.

Cairo 29th General Grenfell has just left on what is apparently his yearly tour of inspection in the Interior; but in political circles it is said that his main object is to study the best means for an eventual occupation of the Soudan by British troops.

Vienna 29th—Advices from the frontier say that the Austrian Imperial Guard fired on some Russian spies who were crossing the Vistula, wounding three of them.

Lisbon 29th—Another violent hurricane has ravaged this city and caused the loss of 30 vessels and 300 lives on the Spanish and Portuguese coasts.

New York 29th—Madame Barrios, of Guatemala, widow of General Barrios, who has a fortune of £2,000,000, is about to marry the Spanish Marquis de Roda.

London 29th—Two thousand miners have just been ordered to strike till they get higher wages.

Yesterday was the date fixed for the marriage of the late Duke of Clarence, and a funeral service, at which the Queen was present, was held in the Albert Chapel.

Indianopolis 29th—The cartmen here have struck, and the police have made several arrests.

Berlin 29th—The Minister of Foreign Affairs has announced that the Government will not abandon its possessions in the South East of Africa.

St. Petersburg 29th—The Russian Government has just apologised to that of England for the expulsion of Captain Younghusband and Lieut. Davison from Panin on the Asiatic frontier.

Vienna 29th—A band of masked ruffians rushed into the residence of the widow Leppers, threw oil on her dress and set fire to it. She has died. She was suspected of having murdered her husband.

Berlin, 1st—The city is again quiet; the tumults have ceased. It is thought that the workmen have been deterred from any further collision with the police. The last tumults took place on Saturday night. The police are on the "qui vive" day and night in the suspected quarters of the city.

Paris, 1st.—Great alarm prevails here owing to the explosion of two tubes, supposed to have contained dynamite, at the doors of the palace of Princess Sogan, situated in the aristocratic Faubourg of St. Germain. All the panes of glass in the palace and adjoining houses were smashed by the explosion. An enormous crowd gathered after the explosion and great alarm spread in the Faubourg. The Princess Sagon's palace is next to the house, formerly occupied by the Spanish Embassy; in this building a letter was found on the floor with threats from Spanish and French anarchists to avenge the Xeres executions.

London, 1st—Dwelling on the recent disturbances in Berlin, the English press wonders if they have any direct connection with the behaviour of the Emperor or with German politics in general; the papers argue that not sufficient attention has been bestowed on the lack of work and increased number of idlers this winter. With such antecedents, reminding one of the Trafalgar Square incidents, it is no wonder that tumults occur in Berlin.

Vienna, 1st.—Fifty thousand men are out of work in this capital. The Burgomaster has opened a subscription to relieve the poor; the Emperor heads the list with £500. The situation of the working classes is becoming daily more critical.

Over 20,000 people are starving and suffering from typhus in Arok, Hungary.

Athens 1st—The Cabinet of Delyannis has resigned "en masse." King George has asked Mr. Trycoupis to organize a new Ministry.

London 1st—The Government have been defeated in the Goschen Bill for the issue of one pound notes which was presented as a measure not necessarily entailing a Cabinet question.

Rome, 1st—In clerical circles it is stated on good authority that the Pope in the next Conclave will appoint more French than Italian Cardinals. His object is to establish an equilibrium.

Faro (Portugal), 1st—The effects of the storm are greater than at first imagined. It is feared that several vessels have been wrecked on the coast. The bark "Hijas Mias" went ashore yesterday, several of the crew perishing.

New York 1st—It is stated that the commercial treaty between France and New York has been definitely arranged. The project will be presented to the French Chambers next week to be ratified.

Brussels 2nd. — Advices from the Congo report the death of Count Earnest D'Ursel, commander of the forces in the district of Lulaborg.

Berlin 2nd—To-day the first volume of the letters of the late Count Moltke, on the war was published.

Paris, 2nd It appears that the new Cabinet inspires little confidence. The Radical and Conservative papers are of accord that the new Cabinet cannot last long, as their programme meets with the same opposition that forced the late Ministry to resign. In political circles it is stated that the Radicals and the members of the Right will join together when the question of the intrigues of General Brugere will come on for discussed.

London 2nd — 460,000 miners have struck, according to orders, with the object of receiving an increase in wages.

Washington 2—The crew of the Baltimore, with the exception of six, laid their claims before the Government today regarding the recent Chilian question—The damages claimed amount to $2,065,000. The cases of Riggins and Turnbull are not included.

ST. DAVID'S DAY.

The festival of the patron saint of Wales was celebrated on Tuesday evening by a banquet, under the presidency of Mr. J. Williams Reade, in Mr Pugh's quinta. The dining-room was beautifully and artistically decorated, and conspicuous among the bannerets was the ancient flag of Wales—a Red-dragon rampant, encircled with the legend "Y Ddraig goch a ddyry gychwyn." The 'menu,' as usual, was printed in the vernacular, and included the national dishes—goat, rabbit and leeks, dressed up in unpronounceable consonants. The chairman, on rising, said that the banquet this year had not been advertised because a new departure had been determined upon, and that was the exclusion of all but Welsh speaking Welshmen, and of everything foreign to the cult of nationalism. In this, he was happy to say, they were following the lead of their Irish cousins, who had resolved upon celebrating St. Patrick's Day in this fashion, by which he understood that none but 'Erse-speaking' Irishmen would be admitted to the National Festival, from which everything savouring of the 'Sassenach' would be rigidly excluded. All Welshmen cannot but rejoice at this indication of the revival of Celtic learning among the Irish, who possess an inexhaustible wealth of manuscript literature, known less, unfortunately, to themselves than to English and foreign students of their ancient tongue. He hoped to see Scotchmen also pay more attention to their national inheritance, for the language of Ossian was quite as beautiful as that in which Burns clothed his immortal thoughts; and he believed the day would soon arrive when Gaelic would be a "sine qua non" for admittance to a St. Andrew's banquet, then might we have reason to think that the Scotch burr and Irish brogue would be vanished to the grave where the Welsh accent has quietly lain since Shakespeare wove its shroud. (Loud applause.)

After the National anthem, "Hen wlad fy nhadan," was sung with great spirit, Mr. Reade rose and, in proposing the "Queen and the Royal Family," said that this toast was all the world over received with enthusiasm; but the late bereavement—the death of the Duke of Clarence—had brought the throne and the people nearer to each other than ever. The one touch of nature which makes the whole world kin, has never been better illustrated than in the universal sympathy expressed by all sorts and conditions of men with the Royal Family in the loss sustained through the death of the young Prince, and this calamity has served to forge fresh links of love between the people and their Sovereign. Wales had always been loyal, and there was no part of Her Majesty's Dominions where her name was more reverenced. This toast was received with applause and demonstrations of loyalty.

"God bless the Prince of Wales" was sung by the male voice choir. The chairman then proposed the health of the President of the Argentine Republic, which was cordially received.

The toast of the evening, "the immortal memory of St. David," was proposed in an eloquent speech by Mr. Wm. Pugh and drunk as usual, in impressive silence. This was followed by a song, "Gwyl Dewi," by Captain Meredith.

In speaking to the toast of the Chubut Colony, Mr. Mwyndeg ap Iwan said that the Colony was in a prosperous condition; its growth had been steady, its success sure. People went there to live; not to make rapid fortunes and go away again. Chubut had no beautiful scenery nor rich camps, it nevertheless possessed an interest and attraction which were found in no other part of the Republic, for here was a British-born people carrying out the Municipal laws of this country with the cordial co-operation and encouragement of enlightened Government officials, living to all intents and purposes under Home rule. What was wanted was more land, and this Governor Fontana is endeavouring to get Government authority to grant. The mineral discoveries may turn out to be mythical, although everybody hopes they may prove real.

Mr. Davydd Roberts, an old resident of Buenos Ayres for fifty years, here gave an interesting account of the changes and progress which he had been privilged to witness since he first landed on these shores.

Song chorus "Molawd Cymru" and a display of the serious and difficult art of penillion singing which has come down from Druidic times.

Captain Jones proposed the toast of "Yr Eisteddfod" and said it was curious to note what an index to character were the national pastimes of a people. The Welsh delighted in nothing so much as in the contests in music, poetry and other arts on an Eisteddfod platform; the English found their chief pleasure in business and field sports, and it might safely be predicted that heaven will be no heaven to John Bull if it have not a counting-house and a cricket-field. (Loud laughter.)

"The Old Mother Country" was proposed by Mr. Davies in a speech of impressive eloquence. He dwelt on the past and the present, and ended with the following aspiration for the future:—

O, whilst the seasons come and go,
Thy dower forget not: be not thou enrolled
Amongst the nations who have lived in vain,
With no undying chaplet crowned.
Be bold
In lofty thought, nor Nature's lore disdain;
So shall thy bards, like the great men of old,

In returning thanks for the toast "The Churches" Mr. J. Morgan mentioned that Dr. Vaughan, Bishop of Salford, who is named among the probable successors to the Archbishopric of Westminster, was of the old Welsh family of the Herbert's, a branch of the Herberts of Llanarth, to which house belongs the Secretary of the British Legation here.

"The Press" was drunk with the utmost enthusiasm on the proposition of Bonwr Llewelyn Parry, who bore testimony to the constant support of the STANDARD to the Chubut Colony through evil and good report.

The war song "March of the Men of Harlech" was sung by the choir, the whole assembly joining in the refrain. The meeting was brought to a close by singing "God save the Queen."

THE VILLA DEVOTO MYSTERY.

Mr. Editor,

I wish to correct a mistake made by the person who supplied you with the information in regard to the sudden death of Elvira Benza. I refer to the certificate given by me and lost by the mother. On Sunday 21, at 3 p. m., two men called on me and asked me to examine the dead body of Elvira Benza, who had died suddenly on the previous night in Villa Devoto, and to give a certificate as to the cause of death. I accompanied them to a small house in Villa Devoto, and I found the body on a bed covered with a sheet. I inquired how she died, and the mother, who appeared very afflicted, told me that her daughter had gone to bed as usual, without presenting any symptoms of disease or complaing of any pain in, and that at 6 o'clock in the morning, on entering her room she found her dead, although the body was still warm. In the presence of the mother and another witness, I examined the body to see if there was any wound or trace of injury, but I found none. There were no signs of asphyxiation. The face was neither swollen nor discoloured, and the neck bore no traces of violent handling. There were bluish spots on the body, but these were unimportant, as they are common indications of decomposition.

There being no evidence whatever as to the cause of death, I told the mother that I could not give her a certificate of cause of death without effecting a post-mortem examination. I asked her leave to do so, but she refused. She then asked me for a document stating that her daughter had died suddenly and that I had seen the body. I gave her a written statement in that sense, and told her at the same time that a post mortem examination would be necessary in the case of the certificate not being accepted.

The foregoing will suffice to shew that I did not give a certificate as to cause of death, as was erroneously advanced.

It appears the document was lost (it has since been found), for she came two days afterwards and asked me for a duplicate, which I gave her.

In regard to the swellings and the spots on the face mentioned by your correspondent in his letter of the 24th, these are easily explained by the fact that the body was decomposing for two or three days.

Yours truly,
Lionel V. Shadbolt.

[ED. NOTE.—Since the above was written, the body of Elvira Benza has been disinterred and a post-mortem examination held in the presence of Judge French. It appears from this post-mortem examination that deceased died from congestion of the lungs.]

BARON HIRSCH'S COLONIES.

SEVERAL JEWS MURDERED.

Palacios, 26th. Febry.

You may be very interested to hear about the Baron's settlement in this province, but I have very sad news to send you.

Since Mr. Charles Ed. Cullen F.R.G.S. or as the Israelites here call him, 'El Angel de los Israelitas, has resigned his post as manager of the Empresa Hirsch, the sufferings of the colonists are insupportable; they are watched by soldiers, as in state of siege, and in their tents they are praying to Jehovah, and singing their lamentations as in the Babylonian exile.

On Thursday last a colonist named Moses Wachs was stabbed by a policeman because he asked for the horse, which the policeman had stolen.

Last night a soldier murdered the Colonist Gershinof, and stabbed his wife and daughter. The last murderer was caught by the French colonists and lynched. Not long ago another Jewish family, named Fuchsman, were all killed at the colony Santa Elena, about 24 leagues from here. It is sad to see how these unfortunate people live, exposed to outrage by Gauchos.

The philanthropis has spent nearly sixt millions of francs, and how long will this people suffer? So long as the rightman is not in the right place. The first manager was a medical man, the next a lawyer. The only hope the colonists have is that the Englishman Charles E. Cullen will withdraw his resignation; hundreds of signatures have been remitted to the Baron, not to accept his resignation, as he is the only person who has gained their confidence.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Carnival this year was melancholy and slow in the provinces. There was little or no animation, no joyful laughter. In fact, the people went through the annual saturnalia, just dying out, with an indifference which clearly shewed that the mind was elsewhere. In Santa Fe, an attempt was made to infuse some animation into the proceedings by the plentiful throwing of water, but this only contributed to damp even more the already damped feelings of the people. Momus was nowhere this year. The crisis has killed Carnival. People were thinking of burst-up shares, Bolsa losses and faded dividends. The native hue of laughter was sicklied o'er by the pale cast of thought. In the absence of good humored animation, the grim spectre of crime appears to have stalked pretty freely about. In Santa Fe, several people quarrelled and wounded one another. At Monigotes, Palacios Colony, a man named Carrizo killed one of the Russian Jewish settlers, for no reason at all, merely for the fun of the thing. The friends of the victim clubbed together and attacked the murderer, who was supported by his friends. A regular battle ensued, and several of the combatants were killed. This affair calls for serious inquiry. In Catamarca, as bad luck would have it, the elections took place during Carnival. Political animosity coupled with hybrid hilarity, which nurses a fictitious good humor at one moment and awakens pugnacious tendencies at another, caused many painful collisions, painful at least for those who received the ball of a remington in the chest or a stone in the face. The police carried the electoral tables by assault, the registers were thrown in the air, and the judges walked off to prison, until the election was over.

The San Luis Government has suspended Judge Jigena, who took such an active and prominent part in the recent electioneering brawls in that province.

GIGANTIC SALE OF BLOOD-STOCK.

(Communicated.)

There is no prettier country-seat round about this capital than that of our friend and fellow-countryman Mr. Francis Meeks at the Lomas de Zamora, and well has it been named "Paradise Grove", for the house, nestling in a group of these fine umbrageous trees, is itself a paradise to live in. All that refined taste and a lavish expenditure of money can do has been done, and done to perfection. The fruit and flowertrees that adorn the lawn please the eye quite as much as their natural products when placed on the dining table gratifiy the inner man. Nor is the interior of the house less attractive; the furniture is of the finest and most luxuriant make, inviting rest and contemptation. Yet, strange to say, the proprietor is one of the most restless and thoroughly go-ahead men in South America: always plotting, always planning, but not always for himself, as the Avenida Meeks and other public works too plainly indicate. His latest idea of public stock sales is worthy of the Yankee blood that courses freely through his veins: indeed it were vain to deny the fact, even though Chile rising in all its might had knocked brother Jonathan into a cocked hat. Hurrah!! But I was treating of blood-stock, not gun-stocks, cabbage stalks, not stockjillies. Hitherto our best breeders have gone in for appearance not real merit, producing fancy animals at fancy prices, which really were of little practical use in all the multitudinous requirements of everyday life. Palermo and the Flores road! Many of our breeders saw the error but lacked the courage to correct it, besides working in an expensive way they must go in for top prices. Don Pancho was the first to grasp the American plan of selection and domestication: breeding in a large general way he each year picks out for the trainer those animals that from one cause and another are most particularly in demand at any particular time: thus good ploughing horses or 'the draught' article are much more in demand to-day than the light fantastic saddle mare of Palermo fame. The prices are lower, but properly and economically handled they pay better to rear and tame. For this purpose a "chacra" close to town is necessary, for, in Bulrich's yard even the finest animals soon eat their heads off, whilst too often contracting the seeds of disease in their pent up, ill-ventilated stalls. Mr. Meeks's plan of open air rearing obviates all this danger, whilst enabling him to sell cheap, and those of our dealers who prefer the old centralstable plan deserve their fate. Even the veterinary surgeons themselves, casting aside all personal interest like an antiquoted garment, admit the superiority of the new system, and could the dumb brutes speak they would assuredly utter an unanimous 'encore'.

'Paradise Grove' covers 500,000 square metres, conveniently divided into fields and paddocks, each abundantly supplied with pasture, shade and water. There are 60,000 vine plants, occupying an area of twelve hectareas. The farm buildings are models of cleanliness, a steamp-pump being erected to supply a never-failing head of water; it likewise serves to generate the electricity that does duty for old King Sol during his midnight 'siesta.' Forty men are constantly employed on the farm, which is a small world in itself. To the right of the manager's quarters stands an open shed for the fine bulls, alongside is the horse-ring, with trainer's house and peons' rooms close by; a large tank and bath are not wanting, whilst farther away a suspicious grunt is heard, and the "cock's shrill clarion" speaking plainer than words can express it of 'ham and eggs,' in excellent thing in its way, 'as nobody can deny.'

All is here bustle, but not disorder, preparations being actively carried on day and night for the great sale early next month, when some two to three thousand animals will be brought to the hammer by the well-known auctioneer Don Adolfo Bullrich, all reared and bred by Mr. Meeks at his fine estate 'Santa Maria,' Chascomus. There is not on this estancia a single half-bred, each and all are pure imported stock, or their offspring, and no better idea can be given of the immense capital thus invested than by stating the single fact that all the Durham breed are from the celebrated 'Duke of York 9,' which cost in England £1,500 stg. The Herefords are from the famous 'Archibald A,' which at 18 months weighed 1,000 kilos; price $5,000 gold.

The race-horses are of the very best blood, such as 'Trincar' out of 'Hermit,' 'Chislehurst,' 'Hagioscope,' &c. Trotters descendants of 'Morgan' out of 'Ironwood,' a superb animal that gained the first prize at the Rural Exhibition; cost $10,000 gold.

The Suffolk Punch stallions are from "Jolly Boy" also a gold medallist.

The Lincoln sheep are acknowledged to be the finest in the country, they are straight from Henry Duddings famous "cabaña." The rams are beauties, the best that old England can produce. Strange as it may appear, the offspring positively surpass the parent stocks, being hardier and more acclimatised, and no farm in the world can produce better samples of 'Clydesdale,' 'Suffolk Punch,' 'Percheron,' 'Morgan,' or 'Clydesburgues.' Whilst the flocks of Lincoln, Shropshire, Vermont, Negrette and Merino are an honor to the country.

Who begrudges Mr. Meeks his great success or the pecuniary gains therefrom accruing, when, as anyone can see, he actually deserves well of his country, proving to the world what may be done in this fair fertile land by energy and enterprise. Mr. Meeks is not the only man in the Republic that possesses these rare virtues, but he is certainly the only one who has turned them to the best account; most others of our go-ahead friends diving into politics, whose muddy waters sap the energy of our youth quite as much as gambling and kindred vices poison the life blood of our young and naturally progressive nation.

F. H. M.

MR. GASTRELL ON ARGENTINA.

The Italians are generally considered to be the best all-round workmen that enter the Argentine Republic. They work long hours and well, live cheaply and give general satisfaction, and always save money. The figures above quoted show that practically no iuducement was offered them to emigrate to this country; yet their number reached 50 per cent of the total immigration during the period of subsidised passages. It is a well-known fact that a certain number of these Italians do not remain permanently in the Argentine Republic but come out here for the harvest time, returning to Italy for the harvest time there, and so on, by which means they earn good wages all the year round and a few weeks' holiday at sea. But these form a small proportion of the whole. No other nationality has been known to do likewise; the desire for work is not so strong among the immigrants of other nations—in fact, quite the contrary, amongst them a minimum of work is expected for maximum wages. So many immigrants arrive having made up their minds to do little or no work and scorning hard labour, they think money will drop into their pockets and that a life of ease is before them. The sooner these notions are given up the better. In ordinary times any able-bodied man, willing to work well, can earn a good livelihood. Just now times are bad, but living is cheap, for the labourer who takes the country as he finds it and is contented with the ordinary food provided. It may be different to what he has been accustomed, but it is good and sufficient. British immigrants, especially, expect too much. Food and lodging such as a labourer obtains in England must not be expected out here.

The percentage of really useful people brought to the Argentine Republic by these subsidied passages is comparatively small; the rest are worthless and useless in developing the resources of the country, being mostly composed of persons utterly unsuitable to the conditions of this country and unable to adapt themselves to new surroundings. A large proportion consisted of city loafers and confirmed idlers who told any lies to obtain a free passage out to B. Ayres. None possessed the least capital of their own; nearly all gave false statements of their profession or calling; many signed false names to requests for passages and affixed false signatures to the bills for the advanced passage money signed in the outer roads to avoid payment when due. Families were preferred to single men, so men and women would get up fictitious and temporary relationships in order to obtain subsidised passages as a family. The only way to substantially increase the productive labour of the country is to let immigration alone to work out its own course naturally—as was the case before subsidised passages were granted—a system which had been found to work well and which obtained better results. The desirable class of immigration will be attracted to the country and induced to emigrate to it by the social law of attraction which each inhabitant with a prosperous home in the Argentine Republic will exercise on his family and relations in Europe. The selection of suitable immigrants will thus take place of itself without State interference; it was so before, and was successful. Self interest will work the problem naturally if individual action be left perfectly free. It is evident that subsidised passages, unless under the strictest supervision, are apt to benefit foreign countries by exporting a large number of unproductive labourers to the detriment of the Argentine Republic, where they will only become a public burden.

This country, adds Dr. Alsina, can assimilate at the most 90,000 to 100,000 capable immigrants a year; a larger number would unduly strain the labour market, and only result in many finding themselves without employment. That is to say, 90,000 to 100,000 during any given year would be the largest possible number of immigrants arriving without capital of their own that could be utilized and protected by employers of labour, both foreign and native, who are established in farming, industries, or commerce in this country. Any excess over this would but cause great distress and the return home of the worthless labourers, a view which has been justified by observing the character and nationality of departing emigrants.

These views seem in the main to be correct and fairly stated, though it may be questioned whether it is not rather those former immigrants already in the country and who have savings who have lately being leaving this country, as is shown by the large number of Italian emigrants, the saving nationality 'par excellence.' Of course, large numbers of worthless immigrants have and are working their passages home in various ways or are helped to return to Europe by charity. But by far the greater part of the emigration pays its own way.

LOSS OF THE JOHN ELDER.

Colonia "Ajo". Lucas Gonzalez.
Entre Rios, Febry. 24th.

Mr. Editor.

Living so far away from Buenos Ayres does not allow of my having the pleasure to receive your daily paper on the day of issue, therefore I am somewhat behind in taking up the cudgels for the captain and officers of the s.s. "John Elder". I did not think it necessary after reading the letter from two nautical passengers which you gave in a former issue, but since then the finding of the Naval Court at Valparaiso and the Narrative of a Survivor (mind you no lives were lost) on the loss of the s.s. "John Elder" have been published in your "Standard", and if you will kindly allow me I would like to say a word or two in the matter.

Dealing with the Naval Court, I may say that only one of its members viz. Capt. Stewart of the s.s. "Charles Steel" could possibly feel and know how easily it was to be placed in the position of Capt. Perry (if Capt. Elliott of the barque "Valparaiso" is a steam-boat-man he will also understand) and his (or their) judgment would be biassed by the non-mercantile gentlemen who had the hearing and finding of the case.

The decision to me is open to plenty of criticism, but as I am not in a position to know where Capt. Perry lacked tact and prudence on this lamentable occasion I cannot defend him; but this I do know that we were brother officers together on board of a Pacific Steamer when a similar accident occurred in the Straits of Magellan, and Herbert Perry did not then show the white feather, but acted with that coolness and daring which is characteristic of the British Seaman, and I will not believe that he is guilty of anything more or less in this case than an error of judgment which may happen to any one of us ashore or afloat, and prove equally as disastrous financially, and this your slumbering survivor might bear in mind when he comes to grief.

Now how to put a good word in for Mr. Poole, the Chief Officer: he is not the Captain's nurse to advise or suggest, and in nine cases out of ten any interference on the Chief Officer's part would be considered a breach of discipline, and I think it hard lines he should be punished for his senior's mistake. How would the members of the court like their Chief Officers to dictate to them what should be, or should not be done? As for the censure on the Chief Engineer Mr Mac Master, it is utterly out of place and most pointedly shows why I criticise the finding of the Naval Court.

Here is a man to be publicly censured by a court who know little or nothing about his business or the construction I imagine of the s.s. "John Elder", and the idea to find fault with him because he does not close the door of the engine room, which is above high water mark, is too ridiculous; the stoke-hole doors should be closed to minimise sinking in case of a collision, but when the ship is aground with rocks through her bottom it matters little whether they are closed or not as regards safety, and I think it a cruel shame that an engineer should be sat upon by a court which has not ont or two of his peers as members when passing such a public censure.

Years ago I was Third Officer of the s.s. "John Elder" and was for many years attached to the Pacific Steam Nav. Compny.'s service, and as many of you in Buenos Ayres must know, such a wholesale condemnation by the Valparaiso Naval Court on their Officers is not merited.

Yours truly
Oswald Hillkirk
Lieut. R N.R.

OBITUARY.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Whiting, wife of Mr. Harry Whiting, late of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Whiting left for La Banda about six months ago, and during this short period lost two children through death. The family returned here on Monday of last week, but Mrs. Whiting succumbed to an attack of fever on Saturday. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband. The funeral took place on Sunday, the burial service being conducted by Mr. W. Fosterjohn: at the end of the service a most impressive address was delivered by Mr. Henry Martin. May his eloquent and earnest words be the means of awakening the careless to a sense of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death.

W. F.

THE STEAMER BRITISH PRINCE.

Feb. 28th

Mr. Editor,

The crew of the above named ship wish to tender our sincere thanks for the kind and spirited way in which you exposed our case, and also to inform you that our owner, upon seeing that we were firm in our resolution, has thought it better to cancel the charter to Rio Janeyro, and yesterday wired to that effect, so that the Naval Court called to try us on Wednesday will not be required.

Hoping that what we have done may have some good effect in altering or modifying the Merchant Shipping Act, applying to such cases as ours, and with best wishes

We remain
Yours respectfully
The officers and crew of the s.s. British Prince.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The local Board of the Villa Maria and Rufino Railway have protested against a decision of the N. R. Board not to consider any application of that line so long as the Interventor be not recognised in his full capacity.

The following circular has been issued in London by the secretary of the Central Argentine Railway:—Several letters have recently appeared in the Press advocating amalgamation of the Central Argentine and Buenos Ayres and Rosasario Railways, and one of the correspondents has stated his intention of calling a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of discussing it. So far as any scheme has been suggested, the arrangement indicated does not appear to have been framed in the interests of the stockholders of the Central Argentine Company. The Board, however, will not fail in their duty to carefully consider, and, at the proper time, advise their shareholders on any definite scheme that may be brought forward; but, in the meantime, they trust that their shareholders will reserve their judgment, on any and every proposal, and not pledge themselves to the support of any particular policy. The estimate that £100,000 annually could be saved by amalgamation in the manner suggested, is based on an entire misapprehension; and as the two companies have not kept their accounts on the same principle, comparisons based on the published accounts must be entirely illusory; while it is impossible to estimate the probable future earnings of two railways which have so recently constructed very important extensions, through districts differing in fertility and population.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Carnival was ineffably dreary in the city, except in Calle Buen Humor, where there was a miserably sickly attempt at a Corso. In Flores, Belgrano, the Tigre, San Fernando, and other suburbs there was a vain effort to make things lively. Even the balls in the leading Clubs were a failure: and as for those in the theatres—"Oh! No, we never mention them."

We draw attention to an advertizement from the Buenos Ayres Cricket Club in another column.

In Montevideo and Rosario they had the old savage Carnival, and those who ventured into the streets went home drenched to the skin. The police did nothing whatever to vindicate their own regulations against water-throwing.

Owing to press of matter we are compelled to hold over till to-morrow an account of the expedition of the English Literary Society to Tandil, which was a great success and passed off most pleasantly.

Papers received yesterday mention that Excellency His Hon. Francis Pakenbam, now Plempotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary at Buenos Ayres, is likely to be named to the same post at Stockholm. There is no mention of his successor in the Argentine Republic.

We have mush pleasure in saluting Capt. Patmore who has just arrived with the Torpedo-boat Murature from England, after a very trying voyage. It was fortunate that the Argentine Government had so skillfuland experienced a sailor in command of the vessel. It is the longest voyage yet made by a torpedo-boat. Nothing daunted by the terrible experience on board the Murature Capt. Patmore returns to England to bring out the Py. We may add that he is son of the poet Mr. Coventry Patmore, author of the Angel in the House, which has been translated into many languages: Mr. Patmore is, moreove, one of the most popular essayists of the day. We wish his son a very pleasant stay in B. Ayres.

There was a startling rumour in town on Tuesday morning to the effect that the Berlin mob had stormed the Imperial Palace and hanged the Emperor. Happily, it turned out to be a "bola".

About noon yesterday a shot was heard in the inner rooms of the Armeria de Paris, in Calle Rivadavia, near the Plaza. It was found that the proprietor had blown his brains out. We have not heard the cause of the sad deed.

A Rosario subscriber writes:—

"Carnival here this year is more objectionable than ever in the centre of the town; buckets of water and flour are the order of the day, and this in the face of police regulations forbidding other than 'pomos' and cut paper, with a penalty up to $100."

The B. Ayres and Montevideo cricket teams had it out on Tuesday on the Palermo ground. The match was a very interesting one, the fielding being very good and the batting ditto. Mr. James Gifford's batting on the B. Ayres side attracted great attention. The Montevideans won, although B. Ayres, in the second innings, made a great effort to pull up.

In reference to the lamented death of the Duke of Clarence, a London society paper says: "A pessimistic old lady who knows the Royal Family well says: "Mark my words, the death of this poor boy is but the beginning of a series of very serious events. The Princess of Wales will never recover from this blow, her life is over, and the same may be said of the Prince. I should not be at all surprised if he abdicated his rights in favour of Prince George. The health of his daughter Maud besides makes him most anxious, and his wife's mental excitement added to this makes him long to put aside his Heir-Apparentdom and give up the social leader ship of England to his only surviving boy."

The weather-telegrams from London are getting tired. Having shown that they can do the distance in eight minutes, they took 14 minutes on Monday, 28 on Tuesday, and 34 yesterday, but they always arrive nearly four hours before they start.

The tram companies have now to face a new dodge, for which the public are more responsible than the guards. We note of late that those who alight from a car before an Inspector appears, beckon to the "mayoral" and give him back their ticket, which he of course sells again and puts the money in his pocket. We have seen people dressed as ladies and gentlemen do this, so it is no wonder that the "oi polloi" follow the example. The worst of it is, that the people who thus lend themselves to swindling the companies seem to think it a quite meritorious act, to "help the poor guards".

Our English colleague in Rosario says that the Rev. Father Sheehy is preparing specially solemn religious services for the celebration of St. Patrick's Day there, as his new church will be opened on that Festival. The same paper makes the starling that announcement notwithstanding the ruling of the Federal Court that ordered the collection of the tax on cereals to be suspended till further notice, it bears the collectors are as busy as ever, and that they have not the slightest hesitation in selling out those who delay payment. It now remains to be seen what the Federal

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."

Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Wednesday, March 2nd.

The month opened to-day with a very firm gold market, but as the day grew the feeling weakened and it became apparent that a very strong bearish speculation is afoot to put down prices this month. About eighteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at 57.60, fell as low as 56.10, but closed hard at 57.10, say 250 o|o premium. One thousand sovereigns were sold; the price opened at $17.70, fell to 17.55, and closed at 17.60, say 249½ o|o premium. The market was hard at the closing rates.

Patriotic Bonds were dull: prices for cash were weak at 61, and 62 for the end of the month. National Cedulas B were done at 95 and 85 at 70. La Plata Cedulas were weak and dull.

Exchange was a shade firmer to-day at 48 4d. on London. Discounts shew no improvement.

The Bank of England Board have gone out of their way to support the Ellauri Conversion scheme. The following circular speaks volumes:—

"I beg to enclose copy of the arrangement for the conversion of the External Debt of the Republic of Uruguay, the terms of which will be found on page 4, Art. 12.

"The Bank hold on your behalf £ of the Five per Cent. Unified Loan of 1883; £ of the Six per Cent. Sterling Loan of 1888.

"If you decide to convert, and wish the Bank to act on your behalf, please sign and return the annexed form.

"I may add that, so far as can be judged, no better arrangement seems likely to be obtained.

"Yours faithfully,
"F. May,
"Chief Cashier."

Nearly all the London papers indulge in very severe criticisms on the above, and it appears that many other London banks have followed the example set by the Bank of England.

The wool market is in a state of panic. Prices for good, middling and inferior qualities have fallen to such a degree that extra superior wools can hardly aspire to the quotation, wools that fetched in November 13d. But where the decline is most severely felt is in so called 'borrega' wools; sales of 'borregas' from the North with 'carretilla' are reported at 8½; in spite of this low quotation, there is only one buyer of this kind of wool in the markets. Limits of purchase are 3.50 francs for good Southern wools, kilo washed; 3.25 for middling qualities. Consignees will naturally not submit to these low prices, and business in consequence is paralyzed. It is calculated that we must yet export 225,000 bales of wool.

The wheat market is a reflex of the wool market. The leading wheat men are already beginning to store their grain; meantime, prices in Europe continue falling and the gold premium here is on the decline; these hopeful farmers are looking forward like their colleagues in wool to a heavy rise in gold. Wool, wheat, maize, hides, skins, all are falling steadily—the degringolade is complete. The losses of estancieros, consignees, 'acopiadores,' and farmers in general will be enormous if this absurd policy of storing their products continue. Our friend Don Carlos Lix Klett has been preaching the march of events for the last four months. Those who hearkened to his advice have done well, and many are sorry that they did not heed same.

The year has been an exceptional one for production: our public men and legislature should study the phenomena of this season. We see gold at 250% premium; freights are very cheap; the quality of the clip is the best on record; nevertheless, prices have fallen no less than 30% since last season. In all the wool producing countries producers have submitted to the fall: the next Colonial wool sale in London at the end of this month will comprise 400,000 bales; in May the European clip will begin; in fact, a superabundance of wool is inevitable. Nevertheless, Argentine farmers refuse to sell their wools, blinded by the hope of a rise in gold here or a rise in wool in Europe.

The Pacific ss. Iberia, from Liverpool and Rio, arrived at Montevideo on the 1st inst. Owing to difficulties in landing her passengers, it is not yet known when she will start for the West Coast; she got her dispatch to-day, and will leave when her passengers are placed ashore.

The gold market opened weak at the second ring; the ounce closed at $56.70, say 248¾ o|o premium, and the sovereign at 17.60, say 249½ o|o premium. Stocks and shares were very dull.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring:—

in full, in any case. The issue of notes at Montevideo has necessitatsd this call at £2.10 a share in addition to the balance uncalled on their nominal value. The extra call of £2.10s, beyond the nominal value of the shares, seems to us very hard, if not unjust, and we expect it will be disputed. The liability of the shareholders being limited, it is certainly difficult at first sight to understand how they can be made liable for more than the nominal value of their shares. According to the local law, notes have preference over all other debts of the bank, but neither this nor any other law that we are aware of, converts them into an extraordinary liability for the shareholders in addition to the ordinary liability of their shares. We know that local legal opinion is contrary to this extra call. However, it is a delicate point, in which conflicting laws of two countries have to be reconciled, and therefore we do not feel competent to offer an opinion. The question, be it noted, is one that affects all shareholders in a Bank of issue, and therefore we trust steps will be taken to arrive at a propcr legal opinion."

The Minister of Finance has fixed the rate of gold at 340 for payment of Customs dues.

The Financial Review has received the following :—

"London, Feb. 26, 1892.

"Argentine 5 o/o Loan, 1886, 61¼.

"Argentine Funding Loan 53.

"Buenos Aires Great Southern, Ord. Stock, 112.

"Buenos Aires Western 74.

"Buenos Aires and Rosario, Ord. Shares, 65½.

"Central Argentine, Ord. Stock, 52½.

"London and River Plate 21.

"The above prices show a marked improvement all round from the very low prices of a fortnight ago. The advance in railway quotations is, of course, due to better returns in sterling consequent on a lower conversion rate. Government and Bank stocks have moved up in sympathy.

"A rise is shown by Argentine Five per Cent. of 2 per cent; Funding Loan, 1¼ per cent; Great Southern, 6 per cent; Rosario, 5½ per cent; Central Argentine, 7 per cent; London Bank, 1 per cent.

"It is interesting to remark that on the few stocks quoted above, the fortnight shows an increase in value equal to about £880,000. As the other stocks, debentures and preference will also have improved, we should not be much out probably in putting the total gain on the securities of the lines quoted at £1,500,000."

Mr. Spencer Compton, the courteous purser of the R.M.S. La Plata, favors us with the following :—

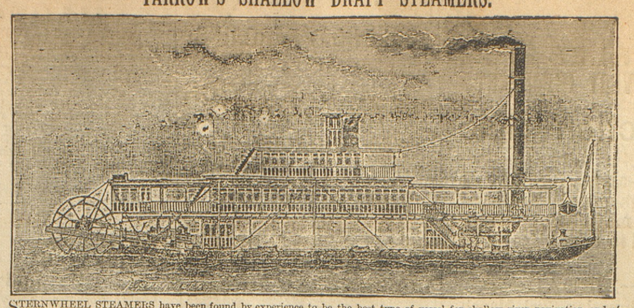
YARROW'S SHALLOW DRAFT STEAMERS.



STERNWHEEL STEAMERS have been found by experience to be the best type of vessel for shallow river navigation, and of these Messrs. YARROW have constructed a large number of successful examples for all parts of the world.

Vessels on this system are constructed, when required, to draw as little as 6 inches.

Messrs. YARROW lately built the sternwheelers "Mosquito" and "Herald" for the British Government, for service on the Zambesi.

They were constructed in floatable sections (capable of shipment), which were simply bolted together, avoiding thereby the costly and difficult process of rivetting up and launching.

For full particulars apply to—

YARROW & CO., Shipbuilders,
POPLAR, LONDON.

At the Estancia Grande, the property of GEORGE BELL there are always on Sale Clydesdale and Cleveland Stallions, Durham Bulls, and Lincoln Rams, also Potros suitable for carriages and heavy draught.

As all animals offered for sale at this Estancia are by stallions, bulls, etc., imported direct from England by the owner, it would therefore be advantageous for intending purchasers to inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere.

Nearest Station (under a league from the Estancia) EMPALME PEREIRA F.C. a La Plata from whence animals can be despatched to any part of the Republic.

Animals of the same breeds are obtainable at the Estancia La Favorita. Apply to the Mayodomo, Almacen La Suiza, Carrera Tandil a Necochea, or to Hotel Dhees, Tandil; also at Estancia Santa Catalina. Apply Mayordomo, San Jose de la Esquina, F.C.O.S. Rosario.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

These Skins will be exhibited at the Feria of the Sociedad Rural at Dolores and Chascomus.

This Dip has the following advantages:—It never stains the wool, but augments the growth and ensures the highest value in the market. It is easy to use, being readily soluble in cold water, and hand curing is rarely required after.
